THE Water Valley Eagle says: "The Memphis APPEAL pays a nandsome compliment to our townsman, Col. Sam Tate, management of the Miss. Central R. R. and says that ' without doubt, he stands unrivaled in the South, for ability in his peculiar vocation.' We are glad to see that the APPEAL has got over its little hallupination, on the subject of the city's stock in the Mississippi and Tennesse Rallroad!" It never entered the head of the astute and learned gentleman who conducts the Eagle that we may admire a man's talents or acquirements, and yet despise and contemn some of the uses and ends to which he prostitutes them.
The APPEAL'S "little hallucination" is good-rich. It is well for you, neighbor, that the city has voted a haif million bonds, and her 'railroad stock is safe, or
